

The bible, growing landless-ness, and environmental degradation in modern Uganda: An encounter.

Alfred Olwa.

Year: MA Thesis; 2002

Bishop Tucker School of Divinity and Theology, Uganda Christian University.

Length of script: 175pp, Bibliog: 15pp, (CS).

Chapter titles:

- (a) Introduction
- (b) Uganda-landless-ness and environmental degradation
- (c) The discrete voice of the Old Testament an interpretation of land
- (d) The discrete voice of the New Testament – Jesus’ teaching on land related motifs
- (e) The discrete voice of the New Testament apostolic witness on land
- (f) Towards a biblical theology of land for modern Uganda

Abstract

In modern Uganda two situations, in which a theme from the bible is understood to have immediate practical consequences in the lives of many people, is landlessness and environmental degradation. In this dissertation the author examines the problem of landlessness and environmental degradation in modern Uganda. The author asserts that the problem of growing landlessness and environmental degradation is relevant to the Church in modern Uganda. The author recommends that the Church leadership in Uganda in dealing with the problem should focus on justice and righteousness.